

Date of Switch to New Official Website Address

Japan Securities Finance CO., Ltd.

Japan Securities Finance Co., Ltd. (herein after “JSF”) previously announced plan to change our website addresses for all pages on our website (both IR website and Loans for Margin Transactions website). The switch has now been scheduled for the date indicated below.

As such, if you have added any page in the JSF website to your Favorites/Bookmarks or included a link/URL on any digital/printed materials, we ask that you update the site addresses in your settings or on any of such materials. Although visitors who attempt to access pages using the current site addresses will be redirected to the new site addresses, it is recommended that users update these site addresses in advance to avoid broken links to JSF website.
